

14th November 2024

Dear Parents and Carers

The children in Years 3 and 4 will be performing a Candlelit Christmas Carol Concert, which we invite you to attend. This will take place at St Mary's Church on Wednesday 11th December (6pm until 6:45pm). School uniform and black school shoes must be worn please.

Please drop your child off at school (on the main playground) at 5:45pm. Once you have dropped your child off at the main playground, you can then make your way to St Mary's Church if you would like to attend our carol service. Please pick your child up from the main playground after the carol service is finished (this should be at approximately 6:45pm).

Please complete the tear-off slip below in agreement of your child's participation in the evening performance. We do hope that you will be able to come along to enjoy our carol service.

The children have all been working hard and we hope you will all enjoy their show. Please note that any photographs or videos taken by parents etc. at the performance must be solely for the individual family's use and must not be distributed more widely. This includes social network sites, such as Twitter, Instagram, Facebook etc.
